DEDICATION OF ISSUE TO DEAN EMERITUS FRED F. HERZOG

Dean Emeritus Fred F. Herzog passed away on March 21, 2008. The following two pieces were remarks given at Dean Herzog's memorial by Professor Ann M. Lousin and Professor Gerald E. Berendt.

They are a tribute to Dean Herzog's amazing life and The John Marshall Law School would not be what it is today without his numerous contributions. The John Marshall Law Review was one such contribution, as it was during his tenure that the journal began publishing again. Without the Dean, it is highly likely that this journal would not have been publishing for the past several years.

Thus, it is our honor to dedicate this issue in his memory.
